Netflix called...

They want to make the books into a series (Don't I wish?)

A heartwarming tale of friendships, forgiveness and a touch of old Hollywood glamour

If you haven't done so already, be sure to order The Starlet in Cabin Number Seven.

And did I already mention the trilogy is turning into 5 books?

Book 4, The Maidservant in Cabin Number One, is the story about the woman who ends up owning the cabins before selling them to Sam, who sells them to Annie.

Book 5, Dear Noah, is Annie's story from her thirties to when she turns 80 and decides to write these books.

Some Early Reader Reviews

"What a surprise to discover The Starlet in Cabin Number Seven on NetGalley. I loved it. I enjoyed each book in the trilogy more than the one that came before. Now, I am even more excited to read the prequel and then see what you pen next!" F. Knauss

"I love your writing! It reminds me of when I read Sue Grafton's 1st book in the alphabet series. I thought, 'How is she going to top this? And she did! Every. Single. Time. So are you!" F. Knauss
