

Book two is on its way, so stay tuned.
In the meantime, I'm getting rich and famous.
Well, maybe famous.
Well, maybe known to a few more people.

I've had two book signings;
 one at the Los Alamitos Museum

And these two from Timberline in the Glen, in Lake Arrowhead. I sold 40 books during their holiday open house. (They've sold over 88 books total!)

I felt like a celebrity!

What was incredible was that people brought books they'd already purchased for me to sign, and others who bought books, were so supportive and excited to meet an author! One gal came in to buy books for herself and 5 friends for Christmas!

Thanks to everyone for all your support!

I got these great Holiday ideas from Better Homes & Gardens Farmhouse Christmas Projects magazine.

Try something different with your Thanksgiving table this year.

These can be adapted for Christmas too! Just add glass ornaments, red candles and cranberries instead of corn kernels.

When we staged homes for the Los Alamitos Home Tour, we'd often fill large containers with cranberries and add florals.

Books make wonderful Holiday Gifts!
